INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PREPARATION OF SUBMISSIONS

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

We accept scientific and professional submissions. When preparing the submission clearly define the content area (clinical work, theory, research, workshop description...), which should refer to the congress theme.

The abstract should be 250 to 350 words long.

Two authors can present one contribution. Each author can present maximum of two contributions as an author or a co-author.

The presentations are 20 minutes long, additional 10 minutes will be available for discussion (together 30 minutes).

Workshops should last maximum of 60 minutes.

Active participants can publish a scientific or professional article in the conference proceedings. The article should be no more than 30,000 characters with spaces. The method of quoting and quoting sources should be in the APA style. Font type Times New Roman 12.

SCIENTIFIC CONTRIBUTIONS

The abstract has to include theoretical background, research results, conclusions and limitations. It has to be written in passive tense and it must contain up to five key words.

PROFFESIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The abstract has to include field of work, theme of the discussion, content and findings. It has to be written in passive tense and it must contain up to five key words.

The abstract of an article or a workshop should include the purpose of the article, its objectives, connection to the congresses topic, its benefits for the participants and/or evaluation. It is preferable that a professional contribution includes a practical presentation of the subject area in the form of a case study.

CRITERIA FOR ASSESSMENT OF SUTIABILITY

All submissions will be reviewed by our scientific committee, which will take into account the following criteria: the importance of the theme for the participants, its connection to the congresses topic, suitable theoretical background, content quality (results, conclusions).

If the summary will not be in accordance with the instructions, the author will be asked for corrections. Only contributions send in time will be accepted.
